Featured Speaker:

Megan Douglas, JD

Assistant Professor in the Department of Community Health and Preventive Medicine and the Director of Research and Policy in the National Center for Primary Care at Morehouse School of Medicine

Tuesday, October 26, 2021

2- 3 p.m. ET / 1-2 p.m. CT

Event Description:

In this session, attendees will learn key information about how advancing health equity requires a multifaceted approach. Join the conversation with our esteemed speaker as we learn about the Brooks PETAL Framework and how to use the framework as a guide for integrating a community driven approach to health equity into our work.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify an approach for integrating health equity
- Adopt the Brooks PETAL Health Equity Framework (Prioritize health equity, Engage the community, Target health disparities, Act on the data and Learn and improve)

Please invite your friends, colleagues, and loved ones to attend this event with you to learn together and support each other.

Co-hosted by Alliant Quality, the quality improvement group of Alliant Health Solutions (AHS), the Medicare Quality Innovation Network-Quality Improvement Organization (QIN-QIO) for Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, and Tennessee, the Hospital Quality Improvement Contractors (HQIC) including Alliant Quality, the Alabama Hospital Association, Comagine Health, Georgia Hospital Association, KFMC Health Improvement Partners and Konza and the Alliant Health Solution's National COVID-19 Resiliency Network (NCRN) team.
