

Partnership for Community Health (PCH) ASSESSMENT

Transformational change occurs when diverse stakeholders come together to proactively execute new paradigms, new service delivery systems, or new ways of creating and deploying efficient and sustainable resources that result in a better health care experience for consumers and providers.

Objective: Complete an assessment at least annually for self-evaluation of the effectiveness of interventions and goals and to guide the identification of opportunities for further growth and sustainability.

Check if this component of an effective PCH is solidly in place	Key Component	Next Steps to Create or Refine
<input type="checkbox"/> Compelling Purpose	► Our PCH has a Mission or Motivating Vision Statement that clearly articulates the team's shared purpose Tips: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The shared purpose should be impactful for the health and health care in the community. • The shared purpose addresses a significant challenge that will require the team's best efforts.
<input type="checkbox"/> The Right People	► Members of our PCH have the diversity of roles and perspectives to lead with legitimacy in the eyes of stakeholders Tips: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Team members display a high level of systems thinking – how individual things influence the whole. • Brainstorm what other community partners and stakeholders across levels of care should be considered for invitation to join the PCH's work – who else needs to be at the table?
<input type="checkbox"/> Enabling Structure	► Members have defined roles and meetings conclude with specific action items Tips: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working committees help drive progress between meetings. • Shared governance ensures all team members are engaged – equal partnership, responsibility and accountability. • Agendas are sent before meetings and minutes are generated afterward.
<input type="checkbox"/> Goals and Tactics	► Data review determines PCH goals are measurable; timelines and key milestone dates are established Tips: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PCH team members know the what, how and why the team will accomplish identified SMART goals. • Root cause analysis is conducted at least annually or more often as needed and interventions are modified based on the results. • Feedback is obtained from key stakeholders. • The achievement of key milestones is celebrated.
<input type="checkbox"/> Sustainability	► The PCH has the level of engagement and resources needed for sustainability Tips: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Consider a schedule to reassess effectiveness at least annually and ask: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are we effectively moving past our priorities and preferences for approaches to our work? • How well can we align our collective work and achieve the shared vision? • How might we work together more effectively as a community to manage interventions that produce and sustain the change we desire?
